They say no one knows you like your best friend... but she has a lot to answer for with Dune. As I follow a man named Hambone through a biker bar filled with ominous tattoos, impressive beards, and enough leather to cover the Rockies, only one thought is in my mind--I'm going to kill Charlotte when this blind date is over.

I thought how nice it would be to have a someone in the house to greet you when you visit it. I know you can have a cat and even a guard outside your house, but it would just be nice to have someone in your house that would just say good day, or I see your back, or welcome home. And maybe even walk around the house a bit if that was possible.

Between that and deleting your existing userpreferences.ini (and userpreferencesx64.ini), I'd expect you to be all fixed up. This morning, I re-installed the graphics drivers today using the nVidia GeForce tool, installed the drivers and rebooted (now with 2/3/2020 drivers, I had the prior driver).
